POLICY SCHEDULE

MOTOR TRADE ROAD RISKS INSURANCE

Policy No: MT20 021813048

MOTOR INSURANCE DATABASE

1. VEHICLE UPDATES
As a result of the 4th EU Motor Insurance Directive, you are obliged to provide the Motor Insurance Database (MID) with the registration numbers of all vehicles that are owned by you and that will be driven, used or parked on a road or public place.

This includes:

- All vehicles permanently owned by you (the Insured) or your spouse if covered by the policy.
- Stock vehicles taxed and in your possession for more than 14 days for the purpose of sale
- Vehicles driven under Trade Plate regulations. You must disclose all trade plate numbers

All changes must be notified to Covéa Insurance immediately after the change occurs. The information required comprises vehicle registration number, make, model, confirmation of ownership and either the purchase or sale date.

You can update the MID quickly and securely at www.coveainsurance.co.uk/midupdate or alternatively contact your broker who will pass the information to Covéa Insurance.

Warning – all of the above are legal obligations and failure to supply the information and keep it up-to-date is a criminal offence. The maximum penalty upon conviction for non-compliance is a fine of £5,000. The MIIC will be seeking prosecution of non-compliant policyholders.

2. RENEWALS
If you are intending to renew your policy, the Motor Insurers' Information Centre (MIIC) requires you to inform your insurer and confirm your intent to pay before the renewal date occurs. You can inform Covéa Insurance by contacting your broker who will notify us on your behalf.

3. ADJUSTMENTS
You are required to inform Covéa Insurance immediately of any changes to your policy.

4. NOTE
It should be noted that a Motor Trade Road Risks policy does not provide cover for all vehicles or every eventuality and the submission of this information should not be treated as an acceptance on our part that cover applies in respect of vehicles bearing the registration numbers disclosed.

You can find out more about the 4th EU Motor Insurance Directive and your legal requirements by visiting the Motor Insurers' Information Centre website at www.miic.co.uk.

24 HOUR CLAIMS ASSISTANCE

Motor Trade Care Line - 0330 024 2244
In the event of any incident involving a vehicle covered by this policy, please contact our Motor Trade Team as soon as possible on the above telephone number.

HOW TO MAKE A CLAIM
Should you be unfortunate to have to make a claim, telephone the Covéa Insurance Motor Trade Care Line. Our Motor Trade Team will record the details of the incident and advise you of the next steps in the process. Please provide us with the following information:

i) Policy Number, Your name, Driver's name
ii) Vehicle make, model and registration number
iii) Nature of incident
iv) Police incident number if applicable (this is a requirement for theft claims)
v) Accident police reference number (if police attended the scene)

HOW WE DEAL WITH YOUR CLAIM
After you have reported the incident, our Motor Trade Team will register your claim and send you a statement of facts containing a record of the information provided by you. If any of the information in the statement of facts is incorrect, you must advise us within seven days of receipt of the document.

Any additional information that may be required to deal with your claim will be requested at this time, although Covéa Insurance reserve the right to ask for additional information or investigate the loss at any stage during the claim.

Reason for Issue	50% MECHANICAL + 50% SALES	Schedule Dated	10th May 2024

Important Notes

1. It is an offence under the Road Traffic Act to make any false statement or withhold any material information for the purpose of obtaining a Certificate of Motor Insurance.
2. You may be asked to provide documentary evidence that you are a motor trader. It is a requirement of the operation of any business that the proprietor(s) maintain formal business records to discharge their duties in that respect. We expect that you will keep such records and will be able to provide copies if asked at any time.
3. You understand that Covéa Insurance will pass the information on this form, and about any incident you may give details of, to IDS Limited so that it can be made available to other insurers. You also understand that in response to any searches Covéa Insurance may make in connection with this insurance or any incident you have given any details of, IDS Limited may pass information it has received from other insurers about other incidents involving anyone insured under the policy.

Important Warning

No cover attaches until Covéa Insurance plc or its authorised agent on behalf of the Insurer has issued a Cover Note or Certificate of Motor Insurance. It is an offence under the Road Traffic Act to make any false statement or withhold any material information for the purpose of obtaining a Certificate of Motor Insurance.

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION

How We Use Your Information

Please visit www.coveainsurance.co.uk/dataprotection for further information about how and when we process your personal information under our full Privacy Policy.

The personal information, provided by you, is collected by or on behalf of Covea Insurance plc ('we, us, our') and may be used by us, our employees, agents and service providers acting under our instruction for the purposes of insurance administration, underwriting, claims handling, for research or for statistical purposes.

We may process your information for a number of different purposes. For each purpose we must have a legal ground for such processing. When the information that we process is classed as “sensitive personal information”, we must have a specific additional legal ground for such processing.

Generally, we will rely on the following legal grounds:

- It is necessary for us to process your personal information to provide your insurance policy and services. We will rely on this for activities such as assessing your application, managing your insurance policy, handling claims and providing other services to you.
- We have an appropriate business need to process your personal information and such business need does not cause harm to you. We will rely on this for activities such as maintaining our business records and developing, improving our products and services.
- We have a legal or regulatory obligation to use such personal information.
- We need to use such personal information to establish, exercise or defend our legal rights.
- You have provided your consent to our use of your personal information, including sensitive personal information.

How we share your information

In order to sell, manage and provide our products and services, prevent fraud and comply with legal and regulatory requirements, we may need to share your information with the following third parties, including:

- Reinsurers, Regulators and Authorised/Statutory Bodies
- Credit reference agencies

- Fraud prevention agencies
- Crime prevention agencies, including the police
- Suppliers carrying out a service on our, or your behalf
- Product providers where you've opted to buy additional cover

Marketing
We will not use your information or pass it on to any other person for the purposes of marketing further products or services to you unless you have consented to this.

Fraud Prevention and Detection
In order to prevent or detect fraud and money laundering we will check your details with various fraud prevention agencies, who may record a search. Searches may also be made against other insurers' databases. If fraud is suspected, information will be shared with those insurers. Other users of the fraud prevention agencies may use this information in their own decision making processes.

We may also conduct credit reference checks in certain circumstances. You can find further details in our full Privacy Policy explaining how the information held by fraud prevention agencies may be used or in which circumstances we conduct credit reference checks and how these checks might affect your credit rating.

Automated Decisions
We may use automated tools with decision making to assess your application for insurance and for claims handling processes, such as price rating tools, flood, theft and subsidence area checks and credit checks.

These automated decisions will produce a result on whether we are able to offer insurance, the appropriate price for your policy or whether we can accept your claim. If you object to an automated decision, we may not be able to offer you an insurance quotation or renewal.
